

unqualified assurance that no Mosotho will be denied the opportunity to serve in any post for which he is qualified and that everything is being done to train the Basotho to serve their own people at every level. In the meantime, however, let us give our expatriate friends a square deal. It is not only fair and just, it is also to our advantage.

-----