

We are fortified by our resolution to look first to the interests of our people, by the attitude of the major powers, who do not support the proposed visit of the United Nations Council for South West Africa to that territory. This Government anticipates no good - but possibly much harm - from an emotionally inspired confrontation of this sort. We trust that, in the final event, good sense will prevail, and that a sincere attempt made to settle these issues by frank and honest negotiations.