country. We shall not allow the propagation of communist literature. Communism is anti-Christian and anti-democratic. If the circulation of communist literature does not stop, the Government will investigate ways and means of stopping it.

14. The Rhodesian referendum to be held on the proposed constitution, as placed before the white minority by the illegal Smith regime, is a matter of grave concern. I invite all the inhabitants of Lesotho, both black and white, all the people of Africa, America, Europe, Asia, Her Majesty's Government in Britain, and the United Nations Secretary-General, to use their united good offices to stop Smith from executing this insult to the dignity and honour of Africa and to all the Member States of the United Nations who are the signatories of the United Nations Charter on Fundamental Human Rights.
