

and others, when they are able, have built us mission hospitals. Some of these opponents of the clergy and the Church are, strangely enough, christians who benefit from these facilities created for them by the Church.

All those who behave in this manner must know they are enemies of the church and of the people because you collaborate with the enemy to persecute the Church and the People of God.
