

the possibility of isolated acts of irresponsible conduct by some of our people. I hope the government of the Republic of South Africa will not, for future relations, take into account, any such acts of hooliganism which are seldom wanting in such big crowds. I hope such unpleasant incidents, if any, will not be allowed to detract from the good conduct of the entire population that availed itself of the transport facilities put at their disposal by the government of the Republic of South Africa.

On the Lesotho roads, I am informed, one or two bus accidents occurred, I take this opportunity to express my deep sympathy with the victims of such accidents and their relatives. Please accept my assurance that proper care will be taken of those who have been admitted into government hospitals.
